On inquiry, Jockey Aucharuz guilty of a contravention of Rule 414 (g) in that approaching the 1500m, he carelessly allowed his mount to shift in when insufficiently clear of runners on his inside, resulting in Lunar Descent, which was racing on its inside, being carried inwards onto Grande Rosalie, with Grande Rosalie having to be eased and losing its position. He was suspended from riding in races for one Mauritian race meeting. In reaching this decision, the Stipendiary Stewards took consideration the degree of interference and Jockey Aucharuz's clean record this season.

He added that shortly afterwards, he was tightened and forced to ease. He further added that when turning into the home straight when asking for an effort, Lunar Descent failed to quicken and was disappointing. RACE 3: THE RBL PROPERTIES TROPHY – 1500M – [B.36]

Tsunami Warning – Jumped awkwardly and shortly thereafter, was crowded for room. Leaving the 1450m, had to be checked to avoid the heels of Not In Doubt, which was taken inwards. Approaching the 1200m, commenced to race fiercely and was awkwardly placed close to the heels of Not In Doubt

Blackjack Randall – When questioned, Trainer S.Gujadhur explained after going through the field, in preparation for the race, he was of the opinion that the horse to beat was Tsunami Warning, and that Not In Doubt would prove faster, having led over the 990m in Mauritius. As such, he instructed Jockey Mansour to jump and secure the position behind the leader, preferably on the rails and decide where to move from depending on the pace of the race. Jockey Mansour confirmed these instructions and added that his mount had jumped well, and seeing that Not In Doubt proved faster and that Tsunami Warning was also insisting to secure the position behind the leader, he decided to secure a position one-off the rails behind the leader. He further added that as the pace was a slow one and that Tsunami Warning was pulling on his inside, he decided to stay on its outside, just off the leader and improve gradually from approaching the 450m. He stated that he was confident of catching the leader, as he was of the opinion that Not In Doubt would not stay the 1500m. When further questioned regarding the pace of the race, Jockey Mansour explained that although it was very slow, he decided against making an early move to tackle the leader as the only time Blackjack Randall lost in Mauritius was when it was in the lead and had labored in the home straight. In his opinion, this gelding prefers to chase a contender than being in the lead. Trainer S.Gujadhur supported this view and explained that he also did not expect Not In Doubt to stay the distance and proved the better horse on the day.

Wugug – Jumped awkwardly, shifted ground outwards and was brushed by Zacatoo, which was carried inwards by Tsunami Warning, which in turn was carried in wards by Not In Doubt. Leaving the 250m, was switched to the inside of runners to secure clear running.

Zacatoo – Jumped awkwardly and was crowded for room shortly thereafter. Passing the 1450m, was crowded for room and had to be checked on the inside of Tsunami Warning, which was carried inwards by Not In Doubt. Leaving the 450m, was switched to the outside of runners to improve its position and raced wide from then onwards.

Not In Doubt – Knuckled on jumping and shifted ground inwards, crowding Tsunami Warning onto Zacatoo. Passing the 1450m, was taken inwards and in doing so, carried Tsunami Warning inwards onto Zacatoo, with Zacatoo being crowded for room and having to be checked. On inquiry, Jockey Schwarz pleaded guilty to a contravention of Rule 414 (g) in that he carelessly allowed his mount to shift in when insufficiently clear of Tsunami Warning on his inside, with Tsunami Warning being carried inwards onto Zacatoo, with Zacatoo having to be badly checked and Tsunami Warning having to be eased. He was suspended from riding in races for two Mauritian race meetings. In reaching this decision, the Stipendiary Stewards took into consideration the gravity of the incident, Jockey Schwarz's clean record this season and his guilty plea.
